What is Important to You?

The PTSA wants to have programming that matters to you. With the PTSA dues that families pay, we can arrange for experts to speak at informative evenings. Let us know what your concerns are so we can plan our programming. For example, do you want to:

- Understand the college process better, starting with what you can do in 9th grade?
- Learn ways we can reduce student (and parent) stress?
- Discuss the effects of social media on our lives?
- Talk about peer pressure, drugs, alcohol?
- Learn ways to help our kids be more empathetic and accepting of others?

Just let us know. Click here to give suggestions. The PTSA will plan evening meetings on the two most common requests. Then, show up at the meetings and bring your friends. (If you need a translator for any of our meetings, just contact the PTSA at info@gnshs-ptsa.org.)

Meanwhile, if you haven't done so already, please contribute now to support the PTSA:

Pay PTSA Dues of \$25

Donate towards Staff Luncheon

Pay Senior Event Dues \(for 12th grade parents only\)

Thanks,

Miriam Kobliner, PTSA President
